Description

This stunning antique French, ormolu and Sèvres Porcelain-Inset Meuble d'Appui pier cabinet dates from circa 1880. The demi lune white Carrara marble top has a pierced brass gallery above a central cupboard door inset with five large turquoise and floral Sevres porcelain plaques and flanked by canted stiles inset with six further small plaques, which opens to reveal a single shelf. The cabinet is set on a serpentine base with scrolled apron and raised on stout cabriole legs with ormolu cast mounts and sabots. Add this beautiful pier cabinet with its great provenance to any room in your home. Provenance: Corby Castle, Carlisle, England Lord and Lady Ballyedmond See photo Condition: In good condition. As an antique item, the piece shows signs of use commensurate with age, these minor condition issues are mentioned for accuracy and, as seen in the accompanying photographs, it displays beautifully.
