Description

A very cool, very wonderful antique late 19th early 20th Century French anatomical mannequin wax and plaster head of a young man. A rare survivor and complete with original glass eyes. The head was reglued a long time ago to preserve it and plaster was poured within to reinforce the structure, which is now perfectly stable. There are a few chips/losses. The paintwork is all original and untouched. A collector's piece. Height 21cm Width 16cm Depth 20cm
