Description

A fine and substantial pair of Royal Dux porcelain figures depicting a fisherman and a fisherwoman, produced in Bohemia around 1918. The figures are well proportioned and confidently modelled, forming a harmonious and visually balanced pair. The decoration features softly graded polychrome enamels, giving the figures a calm, sculptural character. Details are enhanced with dead-matte gilding, applied sparingly to baskets and accessories. A delicate dusting of gold, visible only under magnification, adds subtle depth to the garments, a finish associated with Royal Dux models of higher quality. Model numbers 1819 and 1820 are impressed to the bases, confirming the pairing. The female figure retains a clear pink triangular DPM factory mark, with the male example showing expected wear to the same mark. Both bases also carry an impressed "F" within a circle, likely the initials of the sculptor or modeler. Dimensions: Male figure: height 38 cm; width 12.8 cm; depth 13 cm; weight 1407 g. Female figure: height 37 cm; width 22 cm; depth 13 cm; weight 1524 g. Condition: Excellent original condition. No restoration, repainting, or cracks. Colours remain vibrant. Minor wear to gil...
