Description

Fabulous pair of matching 1930s Art Deco bedside cabinet tables in a lovely true blonde bird's-eye maple on a ebonized plinth and banding made by Hille. These cabinets originate from England and feature a single fluted door which opens to two pull out drawers with chrome military handles. All with original exterior bow handles. Ideal cabinets both in size and in functionality and will work effortlessly within a period and modern setting. Both cabinets are in great condition having been fully and professionally restored. All doors & drawers open effortlessly. This set would not have been cheap in it's day and wasn't marketed for the masses but the discerning monied clientele who seek both kerb appeal and exceptional craftsmanship and that's exactly what this set offers. These cabinets were originally part of a dresser and bedroom set, we have the matching bed. BIO The Hille furniture company was founded in the east end of London in 1906 by Salamon Hille, focusing on the reproduction of eighteenth century furniture. By the 1930's the company had established international reputation supplying products all over the world. At the beginning of the 1930's Salamon's daughter Ray ...
