Description

A stunning Persian / Ottoman antique solid silver salver tray. It is hallmarked and test as high grade silver - 840 standard. I would date it to c1920. It has been beautifully hand made and chased with various scenes and signed. It is in superb condition being free from dings splits holes and repairs. It measures approx. 13.5 inches (34.4cm) across and weighs 752 grams. A very high quality interesting piece.
