Description

A fantastic Art Deco walnut leather top desk, made in England and dating from the 1930's. It is of amazing quality, it is sturdy, very well built and is a very useful size. The walnut grain patterns are beautiful, they are offset beautifully by the inset black leather top and ebonised base. This is beautifully finished on all sides, so it can be used as a free standing item. We have had this stripped and re-polished, the leather top has also been replaced. This is in superb condition.
