Description

A Nice Pair of Antique Georgian Sterling Silver & Mahogany Wine Coasters. Each features a finely pierced sterling silver gallery with a bright, polished finish and a classic gadroon border. The turned mahogany bases are rich in tone and texture, finished with green felt undersides to protect your surfaces. An engraved armorial crest of a boars head on each coaster adds a noble flourish, suggesting past use in a distinguished household. The original hallmarks are very worn. However, the 'Georgian Mark' indicating the date, and the 'Leopards Head' for London are visible – circa 1800. Measurements: Height: 1 1/4" (approx. 3.5cm) Diameter: 4 3/4" (approx. 12cm) Total weight: 296g Excellent antique condition with expected surface wear. Silver is bright with minor age-related marks and light polish wear. Felt undersides are intact and functional.
