Description

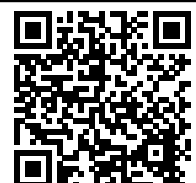

A large and impressive antique oak linen press cupboard of generous proportions, constructed in two parts. The upper section comprises of a pair of framed and panelled cupboard doors opening to a single, full-width interior. Retaining traditional hanging hooks, this section points to its earlier use as a livery hanging cupboard and now fitted with a fixed shelf with reeded front edge. The lower section consists of an arraignment of three short above two deep drawers, set beneath a run of fielded panels. Fitted with brass swan neck handles. The cupboard stands on block feet with shaped front. Beautifully proportioned throughout, the oak displays an excellent deep rich colour and patina. Item Reference: M-6653 . Dimensions: Height - 200 cm/ Width 144 - cm/ Depth - 53 cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition. There is some warping to the top of the right-hand door, along with scratches and surface marks throughout consistent with age and use. The drawer handles have been replaced historically and vary slightly in style but are all in keeping with the piece. Structurally solid and sound.
