Description

Georgian Cumbrian Antique Linen Press Cupboard in Original Cream Paint. A wonderful English 18th century antique linen press cupboard, originally from Cumbria / Lake District around 1770. Splits into two sections, the top having two fielded cupboard doors along with a moulded cornice, inside is a single boarded shelf. The sides of this Georgian antique cupboard are panelled too with the base having two short drawers over three long drawers, they all have the original Georgian brass ware handles. A fabulous original paint colour, never been overpainted, all in excellent original condition, stands on original stile feet. Perfect as an antique linen press cupboard or would work well in a country kitchen for storage. A lovely honest example of English original painted pine antique furniture. Dimensions Height: 187cm (74.21") Width: 112cm (44.44") Depth: 56cm (22.22")
