Description

A Lovely Antique Victorian Claret Jug featuring a tapering conical body with a deep shaped diamond pattern, the jug is crowned with a hinged silver plated lid, ornate finial, and a beautifully cast handle - all hallmarks of classic late 19th-century craftsmanship. The silver plate mount is finely engraved with floral and foliate scrollwork and a central cartouche featuring a Pheonix Crest on one side and initials on the other – circa 1880. Measurements: Height: 12" (approx. 30.5cm) Diameter of base; 4" (approx. 10cm) Total weight: 802g In good condition – No cracks or chips to the glass; minor scuffs consistent with age. Silver-plated mount shows gentle patina; hinge and lid function smoothly.
