Description

A Really Stunning Pair of Antique Victorian Sterling Silver Knife Rests featuring finely modelled boar's heads at each end. The heads are intricately cast, with deep texturing to represent fur, expressive facial features, and highly detailed snouts and tusks. Each boar's head bears full English hallmarks to the side of one hoof, including the maker's mark, lion passant for sterling, and Birmingham assay marks. These knife rest have a good total weight to them - 267g of Sterling Silver! Hallmarked for London, 1867 and marked 'DHCH' for silversmiths 'Daniel & Charles Houle'. * Full of charm and character, this pair of sterling silver knife rests with fierce little boar heads bring a touch of Victorian drama to your table or display. Measurements: Height: 1 1/2" (approx. 4cm) Width: 4" (approx. 10cm) Silver weight: 267g Total weight: 348g In good condition - The silver surfaces are clean and well-polished with only minimal signs of age. Both knife rests stand evenly and are structurally sound, with no signs of bending or repair.
