Item Reference: SA1195345

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

This late 1800s/early 1900s mahogany book box has a lovely rich colour. The box is opened by removing the top section, then the spine slides out to reveal the slot for coins. This section pulls down and across sideways to retrieve the valuables inside. The middle section is coloured in gold to give the appearance of the pages. It measures 16.5cm h x 10.5cm w.
