Description

A charming low vintage armchair with a solid wooden frame and gently curved armrests, offering a comfortable and relaxed seating position. The chair features a shaped back panel with decorative stud detailing and a generously padded seat cushion upholstered in a soft blue fabric. The proportions and low seat height make this piece ideal as an occasional chair, reading chair, or accent chair for a living room, bedroom, or study. The warm wood tone and simple, well-balanced form reflect practical mid-20th-century design with subtle traditional influence. Seat height: 25 cm Very good vintage condition. The frame is solid and stable, with light age-related wear and surface marks consistent with use over time, visible in the photographs.
