Description

Antique 20th century small writing table in mahogany, a beautifully detailed and highly practical piece of fine quality. The table features a raised superstructure to the top, fitted with two small cupboards, two small drawers, and an open shelf, providing excellent storage and display space while adding visual interest. Below are two large central drawers, all retaining their original brass handles and fittings. The writing surface is finished with a beautiful green leather top, complementing the rich mahogany tones. The table is stood on elegant tapered legs and is nicely decorated throughout with satinwood stringing and attractive mahogany figuring. Displaying stunning figuring, gorgeous grain, and warm colour, this writing table is in good condition and of good quality. A charming and versatile piece, it would make a perfect addition to any home, ideal for use in a study, hallway, or bedroom.
