Description

Antique 20th century good quality oak chest of drawers, a well-proportioned and attractive piece with pleasing period detail. The chest features three drawers in total all retaining their original decorative handles. A raised gallery to the top adds character, while subtle carving to the upper section enhances the overall design without overpowering the piece. Stood on square legs, the chest is very well made and of good quality. The oak displays a lovely, warm colour and attractive grain, giving it a refined yet timeless appearance. In good condition and a very desirable example, this chest of drawers is a nice practical size and would make a perfect addition to any home, offering both useful storage and classic style.
