Description

Antique 20th century good quality monk's bench in oak, a versatile and highly practical piece of furniture. The bench features a large central storage compartment with a lift-up lid, making it ideal for storing household items while also serving as useful seating. Designed to be easily transformed into a side table if desired, this piece offers excellent flexibility and functionality. The oak displays gorgeous grain and a warm golden colour throughout, adding to its traditional charm. Very well made and of good quality, this monk's bench is in good condition and is a very desirable example. A perfect addition to any home, combining character, practicality, and classic oak craftsmanship.
