Description

Antique 18th century fine quality display cabinet in mahogany, a rare and beautifully crafted piece with elegant proportions and a unique design. The cabinet features a beautifully glazed front, complete with a key, opening to reveal three internal shelves, ideal for display. To the base are three small drawers, all retaining their original knob handles, providing additional practical storage. The piece is stood on graceful cabriole legs, enhancing its refined appearance. Throughout, the mahogany shows gorgeous grain and rich colour, highlighting the quality of the timber and craftsmanship. Very well made and of good quality, this display cabinet is a great piece of furniture that truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated. A distinctive and highly attractive addition to any home.
