Description

Antique 20th century fine quality small oak dresser base, a beautifully crafted and highly desirable piece. Very well made and of the finest quality, the dresser displays breathtaking oak figuring throughout, highlighting the richness and character of the timber. The upper section features three large drawers, cross banded with oak, while two smaller drawers sit below, all retaining their original handles and fittings. The piece is stood on turned legs with an open shelf to the base, combining practicality with elegance. A rare and highly desirable example, this small dresser base is perfect for any home. In great condition, it is a gorgeous piece of furniture that combines fine craftsmanship, exceptional timber, and timeless design.
