Description

Antique 20th century fine quality Arts and Crafts sideboard in oak, a stunning and highly unusual example of period craftsmanship. Beautifully designed, the piece features an elegant raised upper section with a glazed cabinet to the top, complemented by a bevelled mirror to the centre and two drawers positioned neatly beneath it. To the base are two blind door cupboards, each containing a single internal shelf, providing excellent practical storage. The sideboard retains all of its original handles and fittings and is very well made, reflecting the finest quality construction associated with the Arts and Crafts movement. The oak displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout and is enhanced by subtle carved decoration and particularly attractive glass to the upper section. In good condition and a rare find, this impressive piece comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. A superb and striking example of Arts and Crafts furniture, it would make a perfect addition to any home.
