Description

Antique 19th century good quality farmhouse pine dining table, a charming and robust piece with a beautiful rustic character. Very well made and of good quality, the table is stood on chunky turned legs, giving it a solid and stable construction. The pine displays gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its traditional farmhouse appeal. Well made, in good condition, and very desirable, this table combines practicality with timeless style. A perfect addition to any home, offering both durability and classic design. Please note a set of six ash Windsor dining chairs is available in a separate listing, which complements this table beautifully—see our profile for details.
