Description

Antique 20th century small tambour-front cabinet in oak, a highly practical and very desirable piece of good quality furniture. The cabinet features a classic tambour door, complete with its original handle and key, opening to reveal six sliding shelves inside, making it ideal for organised storage. The piece is finished with a small raised gallery to the top and displays beautiful oak grain and warm colour throughout. Very well made and of good quality, it is in good condition and retains plenty of original character. A neat and versatile example, this oak tambour cabinet would be a perfect addition to any home, combining functionality with timeless design.
