Description

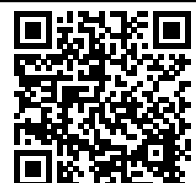

A Victorian mahogany tripod table, standing on a tripod base with three legs terminating in claw-and-ball feet. The central column and legs are richly carved with flowing foliate designs, echoed by the deeply carved circular top. The tabletop features a decorative scene of a flower-filled urn surrounded by scrolling foliage, all within a carved border. The top is raised on a turning birdcage base with a hinged top, retaining its original fastener. Item Reference: M-6606 . Dimensions: Height - 69cm/ Width - 92cm/ Depth - 92cm . CONDITION REPORT: In excellent antique condition. The table has developed a rich dark colour and patina. Some minor surface wear consistent with age and use but overall a lovely example. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report, offering important visual details regarding the item's appearance and quality.
