Description

Antique 19th century Arts and Crafts hall stand in walnut, very well made and of fine quality, showcasing a beautiful and practical design. The piece features a stunning marble top, adding both elegance and durability, with a single drawer to the centre fitted with its original brass handle. Beneath the drawer is an open compartment, ideal for everyday items, while the sides are fitted with two umbrella stands, one on each end, making it a highly functional addition to any hallway or entrance space. The walnut displays a gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, highlighting the craftsmanship and quality of the piece. Solid, well constructed, and very desirable, this is a charming and useful example in good condition, perfect for adding character to any home.
