Description

A stunning Victorian biscuit box sitting in its original stand or caddy. The stand has an attractive Greek Key design carried through onto the lid, the glass barrel kept in place with four pillars jointed together with a twisted thick rope. The glass is very tactile, very heavy and deep cut in a square design. The lid is blessed with a wonderful finial of a coiled rope with an engraved label "Biscuits". Superb quality and condition with the stand base measuring 7 5/8" foot to foot x 9 1/2" tall to top of carrying handle when up.
