Description

Antique 20th century Arts and Crafts style wardrobe in oak, very well made and of fine quality. The piece has a single door to the front featuring a beautifully bevelled mirror, adding both character and practicality. Inside, there is a hanging rail running across the middle, making it ideal for everyday storage. The wardrobe stands on bracket feet and is of a nice, compact size, perfect for a range of spaces while still offering useful storage. It displays gorgeous oak grain and warm colour all throughout, highlighting the quality of the timber and craftsmanship. A very desirable and increasingly hard-to-find example, this wardrobe is well constructed, in great condition, and full of Arts and Crafts charm. A rare find and a perfect addition to any home.
