Description

A Lovely Arts & Crafts Oak 2 Tier Gallery Side Table. A charming and rare Arts & Crafts occasional table. We bring to you this outstanding solid oak two-tier occasional table, dating to the Edwardian period C1905. This crisp, well-proportioned table balances Edwardian elegance with a clear Arts & Crafts movement influence throughout. We have restored, stripped and lightened the timber, traditionally French polishing the table to a soft luster, highlighting the natural beauty of the wood while ensuring it's in home-ready condition. The solid oak top is constructed from three planks, showcasing some beautiful figured golden oak grain. It features classic canted corners and a moulded edge, sitting above a very decorative lower tier. This second shelf is enclosed by a hand-pierced gallery with a spade-motif fretwork—a standout detail that gives the table its character. It stands on attractively turned legs with a subtle flare at the feet, all held together by a sturdy H-stretcher design. A solid, versatile survivor of the period, now with a fresh, luminous finish that sits comfortably in both modern and period interiors. Please note this item is in beautiful condition fo...
