Description

A Lovely Antique Victorian Grand Tour Inkwell featuring a finely detailed solid brass lid and a precision-cut glass base. Likely purchased as a refined souvenir during a European journey, this piece reflects the elegance and intellectual curiosity of Victorian-era travellers. The thick, hand-cut glass gives the inkwell stability and a luxurious feel – circa 1890. * These inkwells were often brought home from extended European tours by young aristocrats and intellectuals. Measurements: Height: 4" (approx. 10cm) Width: 3" (approx. 7.5cm) Depth: 3" (approx. 7.5cm) Total weight: 729g In good condition – Minor tarnish and wear to the brass consistent with age and use. Glass is free from chips and cracks, retaining excellent clarity. Hinge operates smoothly; the lid closes flush and securely.
