Description

Mid C18th George II Chippendale period 'red walnut' chest-on-chest or tall-boy . Raised on bold ogee bracket feet, the base section fitted with 3 long graduated depth drawers . The upper section fitted with 3 short drawers across the top with 3 graduated depth long drawers below. The oak-lined drawers all fitted with cast brass rococo design handles and key escutcheons, retaining the original brass locks (no key) . The flat boarded top above a projecting moulded cornice with carved dentil detail and having canted corners with reeded uprights. The figured 'red walnut' timber having achieved a rich colour and patina to the original polished surface. In excellent original condition, having been sympathetically cleaned and waxed in our workshops . A bold mid C18th chest-on-chest of great presence and style, offering capacious storage. Constructed in two sections for ease of movement and transportation. H 72" W 44" D 22" England c.1750
