Description

Unusual brass double powder and shot measure used by the French military or huntsmen. This tactile object has a wonderful patina and colour and is still in working order even if a little stiff when adjusting the measuring cups. The larger cup has plomb grammes engraved on it, the slightly smaller one has poudre decigrammes engraved on it. Both cups are, unusually, lipped for ease of pouring. 12cm x 2cm x 2.5cm h Early 19th century
