Description

An oak drop-leaf low table, featuring turned legs and a swivel-top mechanism to support the hinged leaves when extended. Supported on slightly splayed and turned legs joined by simple stretchers, the tabletop of this stool /table is attached to the frame by a central pivot, allowing the top section to rotate 90 degrees to a position where the folded leaves can be raised and supported effectively by the base doubling the surface area. A practical and charming addition to any home. W 49cm (63cm open) x D 30cm x H 47cm
