Description

A good example of a small antique mahogany display cabinet with a single glazed door and shelved interior. The door has a sliding brass latch and the interior is lined in a lovely blue velvet which has worn over the years. It is a good quality piece and the wood has developed a nice aged patina. It is in good condition and displays well. There are signs of age and use and it is not without some small marks and knocks but nothing detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
