Description

We are delighted to present this exquisite Art Deco pendant necklace set from the 1930s. Nestled in its original box, this creation by jeweller Louis Kades showcases three dazzling, faceted briolette paste stones that can be interchanged and worn on a graceful Platinon Pearl chain that measures 23" in length, fastened by a push box clasp. The three stunning pendants featuring a beautiful decorative design at the top are hand cut so that the facets catch the light, creating a very sparkling and eye-catching pendant necklace. This necklace and pendants come in their original fitted box, so you can keep the set for many more generations! STONES Paste Pearl METAL Platinon MEASUREMENTS Chain measures 23" in length Pendants each measure 7.8cm x 2.4cm, including bail, chain and settings WEIGHT Chain - 6.88 grams on its own Pendants weigh between 14.85 - 17.48 grams CONDITION This stunning Art Deco jewellery set remains in very good condition. Although the chain is dainty, it remains in good condition and should be handled with care. All three pendants are in excellent condition, with no scratches or chips to the stones. All in all, this would be a superb collector's piece...
