Description

George III oak potboard Welsh dresser base with spice drawers, from Mid Wales or Montgomeryshire c.1790. Split level top with a raised shelf above five slim spice drawers with shaped 'shoes' at the ends. Over three larger drawers with a very attractively shaped apron below featuring three pointed ogee arches, continued on the sides of the dresser. Particularly well figured timber to the drawer fronts and apron. Raised on turned front legs and chamfered rear stiles joined with an open potboard display shelf. Later turned wooden knobs and repairs to the bottoms of the legs. Otherwise very good condition with excellent original colour and patina. Restored, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Width: 71.5" (181.5 cm) Height: 33" (84 cm) Depth: 17" (43 cm)

Internal Ref: 38293
