Description

The 1930 FIFA World Cup was the inaugural FIFA World Cup, the world championship award for men's national association football teams. The tournament was held in Uruguay from 13 th to 30 th July, 1930. The monochrome (black and white) poster reads in Spanish: 'Soccer World Championship / Montevideo, Uruguay / 15 July - 15 August'. The poster also carries the original blue stamp of the Comite Ejecutivo, marked 1930. The poster created in keeping with the Art Deco movement embodies its geometric shapes, bold lines and stylized figures. It depicts in its upper half a stylised figure of a faceless goalkeeper lurching upwards in a valiant attempt to stop a ball aimed at the top right-hand corner of the goal posts from entering the goal area, with the position of the ball shown by placing the crossbar and the right-hand goal post at the back of it in an angular fashion. The image of the goalkeeper is central to the design, conveying the excitement and drama of the game of football. The lower half contains writing in a heavily stylized font details about the tournament dates and location: '1er Campeonato Mundial de Futbol' in black, and 'Uruguay 1930 Montevideo 15 Julio Augusto ...
