Description

A beautiful 19th Century chestnut farmhouse table featuring a framed three-plank top with excellent colour and rich, natural patination built up over years of use. The surface shows wonderful movement in the grain, giving the piece real warmth and character. The table includes a single side drawer for practical storage and stands on a sturdy, well-proportioned base with elegant tapered legs. Solid, versatile and full of rustic charm, this is a lovely, honest table that works equally well as a kitchen, dining, or display piece.
