Description

An Art Deco Rosenthal porcelain figural lamp of a Pierette, circa 1920, designed by Constantin Holzer-Defanti (Austrian 1881-1951) modelled after the German dancer Anita Berber wearing a Pierette costume with a white and green zigzag pattern, mounted on its original brass base and lamp support with a pair of bulb holders with brass ball chains to operate the lamp. In excellent, working, condition, the bulb holders take large screw-in bulbs which are a typical American fitting. With an associated shade. 71cm high, 17cm wide, the figure 32cm high.
