Description

Very decorative English Regency ebonised and inlaid side table on these wonderful sweeping legs with original castors, circa 1820. The table top is finished in a very dark and rich rosewood with the rest of the table being ebonised, with the fine banding and marquetry of box wood contrasting beautifully. Some age and use marks but below decades of beeswax. This would be great as a hall console table or as a living room side lamp table, but you can also swivel the table top and open it up as a games table if required. Really super piece of very decorative Regency antique furniture. Measuring: 28 1/4 inches or 72 cm high 36 inches or 91.5 cm wide 17 3/4 inches of 45 cm deep
