Description

This is a very pretty early 20th century French commode chest with a lovely decorative appeal, in excellent clean condition. The chest has a great breakfront design with the drawers all featuring attractive detailing, hand painted in lovely pastel shades. This has a beautiful figured marble top with a very striking grain which is in excellent clean condition. The drawers all retain their original pressed brass handles in very good order and the piece is raised on attractive turned, reeded tapering legs. The chest measures 85 cms high with the marble surface being 95 wide by 39 cms deep. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £60 plus vat to most destinations.
