Description

A late Victorian mahogany centre table of octagonal form. The stepped moulded top sits above a deep apron with shaped corner brackets, all raised on four turned and reeded legs on original castors, united by a striking cross stretcher base with spindle galleries and a central turned finial. A practical and attractive occasional table, with a relatively light form and castors allowing it to be moved easily within the room as needed. Very good antique condition with minor surface wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place in the home. English, circa 1890. H: 72 W: 75 D: 75 cm

Internal Ref: 3060
