Description

An exceptional early Ziegler carpet with a fabulous open and large scale design. Ziegler carpets are famous for their large patterns using palmettes and leaves using the best natural dyes. Woven circa 1880-1890 the dyes are breathtaking! One of our favourite decorative carpets, the pale blue border and variety of greens and yellows, full of abrash dye change and some lower pile, with all this combined, it creates an ancient beautiful carpet to enhance any room. Please do request a home visit to view this stunning antique Ziegler carpet in your own home, you can let us know a preferred day and time to see you. We have travelled all over the UK visiting customers in Scotland, Ireland and even France and Belgium over the last 30 years. Reserve this carpet online for your home or project, we are happy to offer this service, so you do not miss out on a carpet you love. Visit our barn showroom in Surrey, we are in a small village in Crondall, around an hours drive from London. Our showroom is open by appointment Monday to Saturday, please book in a time to visit, thank you.
