Description

We are delighted to offer for sale this stunning oil portrait on canvas of a beautiful and elegant lady dating around the late nineteenth century English School. She wears a splendid cream silk dress and accompanying blue satin shawl and displays a double string of pearls around her elegant neck and fashions a beige fedora hat dressed with Ostrich feathers, first worn by ladies from 1882 onwards. A high society lady dressed impeccably to impress and painted looking directly at the viewer to attract their attention. Presented in a decorative gilt frame with raised relief work in the design. An ideal interior design piece which would stand out in every type of home or room setting. A timeless beauty ready to show off!
