Description

Antique 20th century pedestal desk in walnut, a classic and highly practical piece with an attractive, well-balanced design. The desk features five drawers on either side and a single drawer to the centre, all retaining their original decorative handles, offering generous storage while maintaining a refined appearance. The writing surface is finished with a red leather top, which complements the rich walnut tones beautifully. Throughout, the desk displays gorgeous grain and warm colour, highlighting the quality of the timber. Well made and of good quality, this desirable desk comes apart into three sections for ease of transport. In good condition, it is a versatile and elegant piece, making a perfect addition to any home or office setting. Product Reference : AF - 5130
