Description

This is a very rare coffee pot made in Dublin in 1825 by Edward Power, it is in very good condition with nice clear hallmarks under the base, this is one of Powers bonkers pots with a fantastic beasts head, see photos, I have been lucky to have had 3 of his teapots but this is only the second coffee pot like this I have ever seen, it is 23cms high and weighs 800 grams, it has a lovely flower finial. A very unique piece of Irish silver
