Description

Antique 20th century good quality drop-leaf coffee table in oak, very well made and of fine quality. The table stands on elegant turned legs with a useful shelf to the base, providing both stability and practical storage. Featuring a classic and versatile design, the piece has two drop leaves — one on either side — allowing the table to be easily extended when required, making it ideal for both everyday use and entertaining. The oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its overall appeal. A well-crafted and attractive example in good condition, this is a very desirable piece and a perfect addition to any home.
