Description

Antique 20th century barley twist side table in golden oak, a beautifully crafted and highly desirable piece. Very well made and of fine quality, the table stands on barley twist legs connected by a supporting stretcher, combining stability with elegant detailing. The upper section features charming bobbin decoration, adding decorative interest and character, while the oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout. Compact in size, it is perfectly proportioned for a variety of spaces. Presented in good condition, this side table is a very desirable example – functional, stylish, and a perfect addition to any home.
