Description

Antique 20th century small fine quality dresser base in oak, a very well-made and finely crafted example. The piece features two drawers to the upper section fitted with their original brass drop handles, offering practical storage while maintaining period charm. Raised on decorative turned legs with a useful shelf to the base, the dresser is beautifully carved throughout with impressive attention to detail. The oak displays a gorgeous warm golden colour and attractive grain, enhancing its character and visual appeal. Presented in great condition, this is a very desirable and compact example — practical, decorative, and a perfect addition to any home. A piece that truly needs to be seen in person to be fully appreciated.
