Description

Antique 20th century small chest of drawers in golden oak, a charming example. The piece features two drawers to the front, each retaining its original handles, and a raised gallery to the top for added character and style. It stands on square legs, providing stability and a clean, classic silhouette. The oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm golden colour throughout, enhancing its visual appeal. Presented in good condition, this is a very desirable, compact example — practical, attractive, and a perfect addition to any home.
