Description

This large scale Japanese Meiji period porcelain charger is finely hand-painted in rich colours with applied gilding. It features panels with a foliate design, accompanied by exotic birds among flowers and swimming goldfish. All of the decoration has been enhanced with fine gilding. The back is also decorated with a simple design in blue and has a central signature. The charger has its original handmade wire wall hanging frame, which is rare to find and useful for display. It is in good condition with some wear to the gilt rim. Japanese, circa 1890 Height 47cm x width 47cm x depth 6cm
