Description

Antique 20th century unique good quality sideboard in oak, a striking and highly practical piece displaying excellent craftsmanship and a distinctive design. The sideboard features three blind door cupboards to the front, with the left and right cupboards each containing a single shelf and a drawer to the upper section, while the central cupboard benefits from two internal shelves, offering generous and versatile storage. Very well made and of good quality, the piece showcases a gorgeous oak grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing its warm and characterful appearance. The unusual trestle-style construction gives the sideboard a unique architectural presence, making it a standout example rarely encountered. Complete with its key and presented in good condition, this is a beautiful, rare, and highly desirable piece. A perfect addition to any home, combining practicality, individuality, and timeless charm.
