Description

An elegant Edwardian display cabinet of refined proportions, raised on slender square legs. The cabinet is fitted with a pair of glazed doors, each with arched astral glazing bars enclosing a shelved interior which has been lined in fabric. The top is surmounted by a shaped frieze with delicate inlay. A charming example. Item Reference: M-6671 . Dimensions: Height - 151cm/ Width - 76cm/ Depth - 29.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the frame (pictured), but very minimal, also minor staining to the interior shelves. The antique display cabinet remains structurally solid and sound, with the glass intact. There is a split to the timber on the top of the piece, likely age related shrinkage to the wood and is not structural. Overall, a good example of an Edwardian glass display cabinet. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item.
